

Forest Fires Rage on W. Coast

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—When one writes about children he is sure to strike a kindred spark in hundreds of homes.

Our G. W. H., for instance, writes occasionally here of his son, Mark, a youngster of much spirit and ingenuity.

From Mrs. Arthur Shoemaker, Forrester, a former Dixonite and Evening Telegraph employee, comes a comparison of notes. She, too, has a son named Mark.

"Just by the sheerest coincidence," she writes, "our home is also blessed with a 15½-month-old son named Mark, and we read each of your columns about your son Mark, for you certainly can be speaking of our black-haired little darling."

"He not only engages in all of the little forms of amusement that you mentioned in your column Dec. 14, but has a few more up his sleeve you no doubt just failed to mention, such as perching on top of his daddy's desk contentedly jamming the adding machine, or standing on the back of the davenport pulling pictures off the wall. He would much rather ride our vacuum cleaner than the nice jingle horse Santa brought him."

"But our son, Mark, has a form of entertainment that your son either doesn't have or you failed to mention. And this is more fun than anything. His 3½-year-old sister, Kathy! What is more fun than tugging and pulling on long, blond hair, or throwing her best doll in the sink with the dirty dishes?"

"And when she takes her afternoon nap (which mommy hasn't yet synchronized with his), what's more sport than crawling in with her, perch on her tummy, sticking fingers into her eyes and mouth... until mom comes to the rescue. Yes, teasing and tormenting an older sister is the best fun yet—for Mark."

"Let us hear more of your son... we keep up with our Mark's progress just reading your column."

File $31,000 Damage Suit In Ogle Court

OREGON — (Special) — A $31,000 damage suit was filed in Ogle county circuit court Saturday against Richard Ehmen, Monroe Center.

The action was filed by Mrs. Edith Cain and Mrs. Elvira Snyder, both of Monroe Center, in behalf of their minor sons, Richard Cain and James Snyder.

The suit alleges the Cain and Snyder youths suffered disabling and permanent injuries when an auto driven by Richard Cain collided with one driven by Ehmen near Stillman Valley Sept. 27, 1953.

The suit asks $20,000 damages for Cain, $10,000 for Snyder and $1,000 for damages to the Cain auto.

Rockford Man Injured in Ogle Smashup

OREGON — (Special) — A Rockford man, Russell Taylor, suffered slight facial injuries Sunday night when a car driven by his wife, Helen, collided with an auto driven by Beverly Burright, Oregon, on Rt. 2 at the south edge of Oregon.

Mrs. Taylor said she was blinded by lights of an oncoming vehicle and drove into the path of Miss Burright's auto. Mrs. Taylor pleaded guilty to a charge of driving on the wrong side of the highway, and was fined $10 and costs.

Damage to the Burright auto was estimated at $350, and to the Taylor car at $275.

Goodfellow Aid To 103 Families Monetary Contributions Pass Mark of Year Ago

Goodfellows are still investigating last minute requests for Christmas aid in the hope of insuring that no needy area families are overlooked.

According to Goodfellow officials, appeals for help came as late as Christmas eve and Christmas day. However, before action on late requests can be taken, representatives must check to see that the needs are valid.

This has been done in every case where appeals have been received by the Goodfellows. It is to make sure there is no overlapping of aid on the part of Goodfellows and private organizations.

The delivery of baskets of food, clothing, and toys went off on schedule Christmas eve to some 103 Lee County families.

Monetary contributions totaled $1,880.25 at the close of the drive for funds. However, officials emphasize the work of Goodfellows is a year-around job, that contributions to this task are welcome at any time.

Goodfellows are still attempting to compile a list of persons and organizations who have aided the cause, contributing effort, time, and items other than money.

A final report will be ready in the near future.

FOUND SLAIN

Sheriff Harry Nulle of McHenry county said the man was killed by a blow on the head and robbed.

French Planes Bomb Laos Invaders, Prepare Defense

SAIGON, Indochina (U) — French fighters and bombers plastered the Communist-led invaders of Laos today and French ground defenders of the little Indochinese kingdom hastily strengthened key bases.

The French were reported concentrating south of Vietnam-held Thakhek, on the Thailand border. French reconnaissance units moving north from their base of Seno reported they had been unable to make contact with the rebel forces who lunged across Laos last week, cutting Indochina in two for the first time in the seven-year-old war.

Lose Men
The French announced they had lost two companies of their own and North African troops in the Vietnam attack.

The Vietnam radio, meanwhile, claimed that the "greater part" of the Laotian troops under French command had deserted and joined the Red forces. The radio claimed also that the 100-mile invasion had been carried out by the "Laotian national liberation troops," but French sources in Saigon said the invaders were Vietnam regulars from coastal North Annam, possibly supported by some Laotian regional elements.

The Vietnam radio, referring to the Laos campaign for the first time, said a "vast stretch" of the little kingdom had been "liberated."

Guerrilla Troops
Informants in Saigon said the force called "national liberation troops" by the Communists are believed to include the Pathet Lao movement. This is a guerrilla band of Laotians which is tied to the Vietnam and commanded by Souvannaphoum, brother and rival of Souvannaphoum, the prime minister of the French-supported Laos government at Vientiane.

The Pathet Lao troops are said to number no more than 1,000 men and to be poorly equipped.

Thai Prime Minister P. Pibulsongkram ordered a state of emergency in nine northern Thai provinces along the Laotian border and sent top police, army and air force officers to the frontier area.

Two Dixon Residents Critical After Crash

F. X. Forman, Wife Injured In Wisconsin

One Dead, Four Others Are Hurt Near Appleton

Two Dixon residents were critically injured Sunday in a two-car crash near Appleton, Wis., in which one person was killed and four others sent to the hospital.

Critically hurt are Frank Forman, 71, of 611 Hennepin av., who suffered a possible skull fracture and shock, and his wife, Gertrude, who suffered fractured wrists, a broken right knee and scalp lacerations.

A third party in the Forman car, Ronald Wold, 17, Rockford, nephew of the Formans, suffered abrasions and shock. His condition was reported good.

Others Injured
Also injured were Theodore Dohr, 49, Two Rivers, Wis., driver of the other car, who suffered chest injuries, cuts and shock, and his wife, 47, suffering chest injuries.

Mrs. Ann Kellner, 67, Two Rivers, a passenger in the Dohr car, died at the scene of the mishap, having suffered internal injuries. Mrs. John Kriwanek, 68, Two Rivers, another passenger, had abrasions and shock.

The injured are in the St. Elizabeth's hospital, Appleton.

According to Victor Juno, Calumet county police officer, the mishap occurred at 10 a.m. Sunday, nine miles east of Appleton, at the intersection of Rts. 10 and 55.

Juno reported that evidence at the scene of the impact indicated the Forman car apparently crashed into the right side of the Dohr vehicle. The deceased woman was seated in the right rear.

Disregard Stop Sign
The police officer said the force of the collision indicated the car driven by Forman failed to stop at a stop sign governing traffic entering Rt. 55 on which Dohr had been traveling south. Forman was heading west on Rt. 10.

Forman, proprietor of Ladies Tailoring, 223 First st., Dixon, his wife and nephew, were visiting Lee Forman, Kaukauna, Wis., son of the Formans, over the Christmas holidays.

They had just left for home when the mishap occurred.

West Allis Store Hit By Blaze

WEST ALLIS, Wis. (U) — A fire raged in a downtown department store in this industrial suburb of Milwaukee today.

Heavy smoke still poured out of the Boston Store two hours after the blaze was discovered, but Assistant Fire Chief Florian Luckow said the fire was under control. All West Allis' fire equipment—three engines and two trucks—was called to the scene.

The two-story department store, a branch of the parent firm in downtown Milwaukee, had not opened for business when flames were seen by passersby at 5:56 a.m. Luckow said the fire was out of control when his men arrived, but that it had been subdued.

West Allis, site of the sprawling Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. plant, is on Milwaukee's western fringe.

GSA Plans to Lease Green River Property

The General Services Administration, custodians of the Green River ordnance plant, is planning to rent approximately 575 acres of land for farming purposes shortly after the first of the year. Definite dates for the leasing notices will be announced.

Templeton Quits; Cramer Named

State Police Chief Denies Suspension Was Responsible

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U) — State Police Chief Phil M. Brown said today Sgt. Raymond Cramer will be temporarily in charge of the Sterling district, replacing Lt. Delmar Templeton who has resigned from the force effective Thursday.

Templeton said a 15-day suspension he received Oct. 20 was one of the reasons for his resignation. Brown, however, said this had "nothing to do with it."

"We had an understanding," Brown said but declined to give any details. Templeton was suspended by his immediate superior, Capt. Henry Engstrom, for disregarding an order that patrolmen not wear uniforms at the funeral of a former officer. Engstrom said Templeton permitted six uniformed policemen to attend the funeral of James S. Giblin of Dixon, who was not a patrolman at the time of his death.

Templeton's suspension later was upheld by Brown. Templeton returned to duty Nov. 3.

Templeton said he plans to go to California for a few months after his resignation becomes effective and later may enter private business in northern Illinois.

The post-Stalin era has brought the Soviet Communist party face to face with a bloodless revolution it would like to ignore.

G. K. WILLETT

Rep. Willett, Dixon, Will Be Candidate

Charles K. Willett, head of a Dixon firm; of civil engineers and a member of the Illinois House of Representatives for the past four terms, announced today that he will begin circulation of petitions placing his name on the Republican primary ballot in the April elections as a candidate to succeed himself.

Representative Willett is regarded as one of the more valuable members of the Illinois legislature. His professional training and his intelligence and integrity have contributed to building a splendid reputation for him not only in his home district, which is the 35th senatorial district comprising the counties of DeKalb, Lee and Whiteside, but also in Springfield, where Willett's colleagues in the legislature give him high praise and great credit for the solid worth he contributes to the deliberations of the house of representatives.

Representative Willett is vice chairman of the Road and Bridge Committee of the House, a very important post, and is also a member of the committee on Municipalities, Fish and Game and Railroads and Utilities.

Because of his value to this district and to the state legislature it is not anticipated that Willett will have any serious opposition in the primary election.

Galesburg Woman Killed in Crash

GALVA, Ill. (U) — Mrs. Lucille Anna Rush, 49, Galesburg, was killed Sunday night in an automobile collision at the junction of U. S. 34 and State Route 78.

Mt. Wilson Observatory Threatened

Hundreds Evacuate Homes in Forested San Gabriel Region

LOS ANGELES (U) — Wind-whipped flames, roaring out of control, cracked less than a mile from famed Mt. Wilson observatory today after presumably destroying 136 cabins and forcing more than 2,000 persons from their homes.

The large-scale evacuations were from residences in half a dozen communities along the foothills of the forested San Gabriel Mountains some 12 miles east of here. Menaced along with the invaluable observatory is the four million dollar television transmitter area which adjoins it. All but one of the Los Angeles area television transmitters are located atop 5,887-foot Mt. Wilson.

Second Fire
About 20 miles to the east another forest fire burned out of control. It also is in the San Gabriel Mountains and has forced the evacuation of 300 persons.

The late season fires have burned more than 10,000 acres of timber and brush.

Among those evacuated from the Mt. Wilson blaze were 40 bed patients from Pottinger Sanatorium and Clinic in Monrovia. Children at the north end of Sierra Madre also were removed from their homes as the flames crossed the city limits over brush-covered land.

U. S. forestry officials said 136 cabins in big Santa Anita Canyon are presumed lost. Intense heat from the flames prevented an inspection party from entering the canyon.

Started Sunday
The Mt. Wilson area fire started Sunday from undetermined origin. Ashes fell as far away as downtown Los Angeles and Hollywood.

The fire fingers moved quickly up Mt. Wilson and nearby peaks. Fire and high winds destroyed the telephone and power lines in the Mt. Baldy and San Antonio Canyon areas. Roads were blocked and sightseers were told to stay out.

Between 600 and 1,000 men with more than 60 pieces of equipment manned the fire lines in the tricky terrain. Forestry officials and police ordered residence of Monrovia Canyon, Hidden Canyon and the Gold Hill section of Monrovia's outskirts, Santa Anita Canyon and some houses in Arcadia to evacuate.

This is one of the latest season forest fires on record, coming as southern California's severe drought continues. Usually rainfall in November and early December dispels the fire danger in these timbered areas.

She left an estate valued at $2,000 in personal property.

Named as legal heir, in addition to her son, was her husband, Christian Maurer.

Soviets Deal in Bad Faith If They Throttle Ike's Plan

The fact that Russia reversed its earlier negative stand on President Eisenhower's atomic peace plan is evidence the Kremlin recognizes the power and breadth of its appeal.

One of the plan's unique aspects is the attraction it has for neutralists and others in Europe and Asia who are unenthusiastic about the Western cause. Its basic humanity is so clear that even woolly-headed apologists for Russia realized that Moscow would have to respond or stand self-condemned of fraud in its peace claims.

After an initial thoughtless attack on the plan, which perhaps was designed only to fill a vacuum with some kind of Communist noise, the Soviet Union now has given its considered reply.

Moscow says it is willing to undertake the proposed private and secret talks under UN auspices on Mr. Eisenhower's plan. Undoubtedly our diplomats will move as swiftly as possible to arrange these discussions.

But we will inevitably approach them with caution. For the Kremlin, as so often before in diplomatic dealing, has attached a condition. It wants to consider a program for destroying all existing atomic weapons and outlawing their use in war.

This, of course, is the very heart of the stalemate on atomic disarmament and control which the president sought to get around by his own plan. His suggestion was that nations producing atomic materials contribute a share of them to a world bank, whose nuclear resources then would be applied to problems of medicine, power, agriculture and other peacetime uses on a worldwide basis.

He would skip, for the time being, any effort to settle the larger issue of atomic control, on the ground that real progress is unlikely. The West finds Russia's plan for destruction and outlawry of A-bombs totally unacceptable. The reason is simple. The Kremlin will not permit the inspection of atomic energy plants which alone can guarantee Russian good faith in disarmament.

Without such inspection, we would be giving away our atomic stockpile, our chief military reliance, under the heaviest imaginable risks.

If the talks are arranged, certainly we cannot prevent the Soviet spokesmen from bringing up the atomic ban it favors. But we must firmly steer the discussions off to the president's more limited but more immediately practical program.

Should this prove impossible, we will understand and we must make the world understand that Russia once again has dealt in bad faith. For any insistence on the Soviet's tired old atomic-control formula will make it plain the Kremlin has had no thought at any time of joining a humanitarian effort to bring the benefits of atomic energy to men who want to live better lives in a world at peace.

One Lead Creates Bridge Disaster

By OSWALD JACOBY

If you don't like the final contract in today's hand, don't expect to get an argument from me. I don't like it either. Neither did South, when the hand was actually played.

This doesn't mean that the bidding was "bad." North's hand wouldn't look any better if he had three small hearts and only two clubs, but a contract of four spades would then be very sound.

Likewise, the South hand wouldn't look any stronger if he had one diamond less and one heart more; but such a slight change would strengthen the combined hands immensely.

The trouble was that North and South each had the same doubleton. Each player thought that this the king. South then led a low diamond, playing the jack from dummy when West produced the ten. East could take his ace of diamonds, but then South had the rest of the tricks.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Heart Pass 1 Spade Pass
2 N.T. Pass ?

You, South, hold: Spades K-Q-J-8, Hearts K-2, Diamonds K-Q-J-4, Clubs J-3-2. What do you do?

A—Bid six no-trump. Your partner's bidding shows a count of 15 points, and your own count is 15 points. The combined total is therefore between 30 and 36 points, which should be ample to give North a fine play for 12 tricks.

44th Infantry Brass Hope to Save Division

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Members of the 44th Infantry Division of the Illinois National Guard met Sunday in an effort to save the division which Gov. Stratton has ordered disbanded.

Among staff officers attending the Bloomington meeting and a similar gathering at Urbana Saturday were Generals Harry L. Bolen and Paul K. MacDonaid.

Bolen said the opinion of those attending the meetings was that the governor "lacked all the facts" in ordering the disbandment "and we are preparing a case in writing to give to the people and the governor in the hope that he will see fit to reconsider."

Criticizing the governor's reasons for ordering the disbandment, the group said "He (Stratton) apparently does not know that the federal government has now assumed the obligation of providing armory facilities for the National Guard which was previously burdened by the state."

In ordering the disbandment of the 44th, Stratton said the move would save the state about three million dollars annually.

Bolen said the state's only expense was for armory costs, and that all guardsmen are paid and equipped by the U. S. Army.

At Sunday's meeting the group released the following statement:

"It is obvious that the governor is poorly informed on the matter and he has not been given a true picture of the Illinois National Guard. The reasons given in the governor's press release concerning the abolishment of the division are not correct and will not hold water upon close scrutiny."

Shooting on the novel about a near air tragedy at the San Francisco airport, Director Bill Wellman lined up a CinemaScope shot that included half a dozen commercial airliners standing on the field.

But before the camera could turn all of them were rolled into hangars. "I'll bet they'll be back on the field 10 minutes after we finish," roared Wellman. They were.

Elroy Hirsch's acting in "Crazy Legs" gave someone an idea at Fox. He's being considered for the next Marilyn Monroe flicker, "The Lady and the Tramp." Crazy legs and crazy hips?

Audrey Hepburn's still an anti-cheesecake doll, she says, despite the recent shot of her on the cover of Life. "I'll never pose for a deliberate cheesecake picture," she tells it. "The one on Life wasn't deliberate. I dress that way at home. It was natural, and I liked it."

Samuel Goldwyn's reissue of "The Best Years of Our Lives" is promised and hoped for in January. A GOOD movie. . . . Danny Kaye's hoofing with Vera-Ellen in a Rogers-Astair-type number for "White Christmas" left eyebrows popping at Paramount. The number originally was routed for Vera and Donald O'Connor but Danny brushed aside suggestions for less intricate steps, and followed Don's version step for step.

Howard Duff's stock answer to the "What-about-you-and-Ida Lupino?" question is: "I have nothing to say." Odd twist to the separation is that it was Ida who moved out of the house. . . . The Doctor Says:

Fibroids Treatment Varies With Individual Patient

By EDWIN P. JORDON, M. D.

An interesting question on fibroids serves as a good starting place for a discussion of that subject.

A reader asks: "Is it possible for a woman having fibroid tumors of the uterus to have a normal, healthy baby, and confinement in spite of two previous miscarriages of three months?" The answer is that it is possible, but the chances are not too promising.

Occasionally fibroids can be treated by radium or X-rays, but this is also a complicated procedure and requires great skill and judgment to decide which tumors stand a good chance of being successfully treated in this way. Symptoms do vary so, that each patient must be considered individually.

Fibroids of the uterus are extremely common in women over the age of 35, and it is said that about one woman in every five has a nodule or tumor of this sort after this age. These tumors are not cancerous, but are made up of muscle and scar-like tissue mixed together.

In many cases fibroid tumors are small and do not produce symptoms or require treatment, but many are likely to grow slowly and eventually require treatment.

The most common result is excessive or painful bleeding; sometimes pain or discomfort in the lower part of the abdomen is the only sign. A feeling of weight or pressure often associated with constant fatigue is common. Fibroids can also cause bladder or rectal symptoms usually because of the pressure which they exert.

Those fibroids which are not producing symptoms usually do not need to be treated. They should be watched for symptoms and for rate of growth. If symptoms do

Use His Technique on Spouse Who 'Honeys' the Waitress

Here's a letter from a woman who says, "I'm married to one of those men who calls the waitress 'Honey' or 'Baby.' If he happens to have eaten at the restaurant before, then it's 'Ruby, honey.'"

"It's humiliating to me to sit there and listen to him, but when I say something about it he always claims that I'm jealous. I don't call this jealousy. The feeling I have is that I'd like to crawl under the table. I'm so ashamed."

"This really gets me down, for if it isn't a waitress he is honeying. It's a clerk in a store or the checker at the grocery. I don't know how to handle the situation, which is really getting me down. Do you have any suggestions?"

Hide this column, and then try this idea. Next time he calls the waitress "Baby," you look at him with the most love-sick smile you can muster and call him "Sweetie-kims." Then smile at the waitress and say, "You'll forgive us, won't you? We are so used to calling each other pet names, it has gotten to be a habit."

The MATURE PARENT
PROBLEM ISN'T LOVING BOBBY:
IT'S FEAR OF LOVING OURSELF
By MURIEL LAWRENCE

One day after Bobby had embarrassed his mother by having a tantrum in the ice cream parlor, she bought several books on child training.

They talked about "loving" children. Intermittently, they talked about it. "Love-love-love," chanted the child-training books, in the most insistent and solemn way.

But what this love was which they urged on Bobby's mother, they did not say. Apparently, their optimistic authors assumed that she knew what it was. As it is the most difficult and rare human achievement, she did not.

For at 22, Bobby's mother, had been denied any experience in even loving herself. Immoral demands that she love others before she knew how to love herself properly had skipped her over an essential state in spiritual growth.

So she thought that love was what she felt for her parents when they said nice things about Bobby's father.

She thought it was what she felt when Bobby's father called her "Sweetiepie" in public.

But these feelings were not love. They were dependence on approval and pride, so the child-training books couldn't help her. She just didn't know what they were talking about.

Nor did Bobby want any part of her dependence on approval. He knew there was something bad about the way she pretended she didn't mind his kicking her, lest she lose his approval. It scared him so, he kicked her harder.

Bobby's mother's idea that love is pride in someone else's affection is what has really made trouble. For Bobby knows how vulnerable this pride makes his mother to public embarrassment.

He is aware that to get what he wants, all he has to do is to attack her in stores or ice cream parlors. Her pride in others' affection makes such attack intolerable.

So it would be realistic if the child-training books would stop talking about love for Bobby as though it were a can of pureed carrots to be opened whenever he needs some.

It's just a waste of everybody's time. Because if Bobby's mother loved herself, she'd know as much about loving him as any writer of a child-training book.

And instead of reading them, she'd be having fun with him. No, the problem is never love for Bobby. Never. Always it's the old induced fear of loving ourselves. Always it's getting rid of its clutter.

Because until I know how desperately I need my own tenderness when I'm angry, I cannot possibly understand my angry child's need for it. Nor give true reassurance in the midst of his tantrum until I've learned how I need my own reassurance when I am frightened.

Not until I know how hard it is to love myself can I appreciate Bobby's struggle with hate of himself in the ice cream parlor.

Prisoner Issue Back in Hands of UN, Commies

PANMUNJOM (U)—A three-member majority of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today turned back to the UN and Communist commands the question of what to do with more than 22,000 war prisoners who have refused to go home.

An Indian command spokesman said that if the two commands reach no agreement by Jan. 22 "we do not appear to have any legal right to hold them (the prisoners)."

The majority report was signed by the Indian chairman and by Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Switzerland and Sweden filed a minority report saying it was "appropriate" to refer the prisoner problem back to the two commands. But the Swiss and Swedes said they could see no reason for a formal report at this time. They refused to sign the 44-page majority document which also charged South Korean interference in anti-Communist compounds and criticized the UN Command.

Official sources said there was little prospect that the majority report would lead to settlement of the bitter prisoner dispute.

The Allies hold that the armistice provides specifically that repatriated prisoners be freed as civilians 30 days after the close of a 90-day period for explanations. That would mean the prisoners must be freed Jan. 22.

The Communists just as firmly contend that they are entitled to 90 days of actual explanations rather than a 90-day period which ended Dec. 23. They have used 10 days. The Reds also insist that the prisoners remain in custody pending action by the peace conference, regardless of when a conference is convened.

Leaf River Man Fined $10 for Drunkenness

Frank Hose, Leaf River, was fined $10 and costs Sunday after pleading guilty to being intoxicated on a public highway.

Hose was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Lawrence Boos, Dixon, after his arrest by Lee county Sheriff John Stouffer on the Lowell park road.

According to Chief Deputy Robert Burrs, Hose was parked in the middle of the road near Lowell park at about midnight Saturday.

Smoke Disrupts Church Service

Services were called off Sunday at the African Methodist Episcopal church, 309 Seventh st., when a clogged pipe leading from the furnace caused smoke to pour into the church via registers.

According to Dixon Fire Chief Gall Keyser, the incident occurred at 11:23 a.m., prior to the start of the services. City firemen were first given the wrong address of the trouble and had to be rerouted.

There was no appreciable damage from the smoke. However, Keyser said the congregation was too excited to carry on the service.

Wedding in France Links Royal Families

BOURG-EN-BRESSE, France (U)—The royal families of Austria-Hungary and Italy were linked today by the marriage of Archduke Robert of Hapsburg to statuesque Princess Marguerite of Savoy-Aosta at a simple ceremony in this drab little market town's city hall.

Archduke Robert, 38 and 6 feet 2, is second in line for the Hapsburg throne which topped at the end of World War I. Princess Marguerite, 23, and a stately 6 feet tall herself, is somewhat farther down the line of inheritance for the crown of Italy, which was abolished after World War II. Her uncle, ex-king Umberto of Italy, was among the titled guests attending the ceremony. Robert's older brother, Archduke Otto, whom Austrian royalists call emperor of Austria-Hungary, also was there.

The couple will go through a much more colorful and impressive church ceremony Tuesday in the famed 400-year-old church of Brou.

None of Europe's still-reigning royalty was represented at the ceremony.

Issue Licenses

Marriage licenses were issued Dec. 28 in the office of Sterling Schrock, county clerk, to Russell W. Stemple Jr., 21, Elmhurst, and Miss Joyce A. Schlueter, 20, Dixon; Alan C. Williams, Scates Mound, and Mrs. Marvel L. Edge, Warren; L. Wilson Crawford, Dixon, and Miss Gertrude E. Wilhelm, Dixon.

CONTROVERSIAL SCENE — A Jane Russell sexy dance routine (above) has caused the film industry's Green office to refuse its seal of approval to the film "French Line" made by Howard Hughes. Hughes has announced he will release the film anyway, beginning Dec. 20. A spokesman for the Green office—the studios' own censorship board—says the dance scenes will "certainly bring the cops" to any theater where the movie is shown. Hughes figures the scenes will also bring plenty of customers. (AP wirephoto)

Trouble Piles Up for a Man Named Sweeney

Troubles piled up for a Dixon resident since Christmas day.

Melvin Sweeney, 405 Hennepin av., was fined Friday for leaving the scene of an auto accident and today he was divorced by his wife.

Sweeney was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Sterling Schrock, Dixon, after being arrested by Lee county Sheriff John Stouffer.

He pleaded guilty to driving Christmas day into the rear of a car operated by Arthur Dodd, 413 Carroll av., while heading east on Palmyra avenue, near the Borden Milk Co. plant.

Dodd signed a complaint against Sweeney, whose car was found abandoned near the Dixon High school on Peoria avenue. Sheriff Stouffer had it picked up, requiring Sweeney to turn himself in before his car was returned.

He was fined $25 and costs. Today, his wife, Lucille, was awarded a divorce in Lee county Circuit court, after charging him with extreme and repeated cruelty.

In granting the divorce, Judge Robert Bracken ordered him to pay $15 a week child support. Two children were born to the marriage, ages 18 and 8. Mrs. Sweeney was awarded custody of the minor child. She waived alimony.

They were married in Crawfordsville, Ind., April 1, 1934.

Train Toll Set at 155

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (U)—Authorities reported today that 11 persons previously unaccounted for after New Zealand's tragic Christmas Eve railroad wreck have been found safe. The announcement trimmed the possible death toll to 155.

The train, the Wellington-Auckland Night Express crashed after a flood which swept down a gorge from a crater lake atop 9,125-foot Mt. Ruapehu washed out a railroad bridge. It was speculated that a wall of the crater gave way or that volcanic gases had blown the water out.

Plan for Religious Census Here

A National Christian Teaching Mission will be held in Dixon Feb. 18-25, according to an announcement today by the Rev. Samuel Batt, president of the Lee County Ministerial Association.

The climax of the mission will be the taking of a religious census of the city on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 21.

Dr. Paul Sturges, director of evangelism of the National Council of Churches, will direct the census and give guidance to individual churches.

The Rev. Batt said, "While each cooperating church will carry out the objectives of the mission in its own way, the climax of the mission for the entire city will be the religious census. Hundreds of census takers from the cooperating churches will make a complete canvass of Dixon for religious information. This information will be released to all the churches of the city."

Eleven of the Dixon Protestant churches have taken official action to take part in the census and mission.

Change Social Security Hours At City Hall

The social security representative from the district office of the social security administration will be in Dixon city hall council room from 12:30-2:30 every Thursday after Jan. 1, 1954. G. W. Spencer, manager, announced. During 1953, the representative was available during the morning.

The change in time should enable the office to accomplish more and will make it possible for more people to see the representative, Spencer said.

So many places of business are closed Thursday afternoon they were unable to make the calls necessary to complete the required work. Some people made special arrangements to see the representative after lunch because they worked in the morning.

The new hours will enable the representative to call at business places in the morning and be available at the city hall to help individuals with their problems.

This arrangement should eliminate many of the special trips made to Dixon and make services available to more people and reduce the expense to the government.

Newborn Babe Dies of Burns

MILWAUKEE (U)—A newborn baby boy, covered with burns, died at Milwaukee County Emergency Hospital Sunday 15 hours after he was found wedged between hot steam pipes on a Milwaukee Railroad passenger train. The infant's 17-year-old unmarried mother, who told police the baby was born in a washroom on the train as she traveled from her farm home in western Wisconsin, was in fair condition at the hospital.

A school student, a high school student from Monroe County, was bound for Detroit where she hoped an aunt would take her in until the baby was born. When the birth occurred prematurely on the train she became frantic and placed the baby in a valve shut-off cabinet in the women's washroom.

The mother told officers a soldier was the father.

Ex-Spy Thinks Hundreds Of Red Agents in U.S.

Suggests Amnesty for Those Who Will Talk

WASHINGTON (U)—Igor Gouzenko, whose testimony cracked a Soviet spy ring in Canada, says he thinks there may be hundreds of Red agents operating in the United States.

And he recommended, in a copy-righted interview with the magazine U.S. News and World Report made public today, that the government "make it worth while for some of them to quit and come out with their documents."

That is what Gouzenko himself did in 1945. He was then a code clerk in the Russian Embassy in Ottawa. He smuggled out documents which led to the cracking of an atomic espionage ring.

Under Protection

Since that time, he and his wife and two children have been living quietly in Canada, under assumed names, and with government protection.

The Senate internal security subcommittee is now arranging to interview Gouzenko in secret, in a search for leads in its search for subversion in the U.S. government.

Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), the committee chairman, said in a statement Saturday night that on the basis of testimony from Ismael Ege, a former Red intelligence officer, "There probably are 25 Soviet spy rings operating in the United States."

Gouzenko, asked to estimate how many Soviet agents might be working in the United States now, replied: "I think it might run into hundreds. As some indication, they spend several million dollars in telegrams alone."

Work Through Rings

Many of the agents, he said, work through rings, perhaps with embassy contacts, and others are "agents resident who would work independently and have direct contact with Moscow by radio."

Among both types, Gouzenko said, "there are some who learn to like the way people are treated in the United States and Canada."

He said these are Russians who, if assured fair treatment, would break with communism as he did. He advocated a five-point program to encourage such defections among Red agents. It would include (1) prompt U. S. or Canadian citizenship, (2) lifelong protection, (3) material security, (4) help in finding employment and (5) formal acknowledgment "that his service . . . entitled him to all assistance and help."

Gouzenko was asked to give his appraisal of the work of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), chairman of the senate investigations subcommittee and for years a controversial figure because of his searches for Communists in government.

Doing Good Job

"I think he is doing a good job," Gouzenko said, "but he would do a much better job, obviously, if he had documentary evidence. But in his job he is doing the right thing because he is bringing into the open many things which many people are trying to use as excuses and pretexts . . ."

"I think we should help to make his work better than it is."

Gouzenko said he almost never heard the names, either in Ottawa or Moscow, of American agents who were supplying the Soviets with secret data. They were customarily referred to by "cover names," he said.

He said the Soviet apparatus was "extremely efficient," and that he was sometimes surprised himself "when I saw in Ottawa how they brought by the suitcase the original documents and blueprints . . . from the National Research Council, from the munitions supply office . . ."

He said the directors of the Soviet spy system "had great respect" for the FBI.

Gouzenko was interviewed by two U. S. News and World Report staff members in a Canadian city the magazine did not name.

Publisher Asks Efficiency Before Postal Rate Hikes

WASHINGTON (U)—A magazine publisher called on the Post Office Department today to go "a lot farther" in its efforts to eliminate waste and inefficiency before seeking higher postal rates.

A. W. "Red" Motley of New York, president publisher of Parade Publications, said that to boost rates "in advance of a real cleanup would result in easing the pressure for improvement, and in a short while conditions in the postal system would be as bad as before, only this time more firmly fixed than ever."

Addressing the winter conference of the American Marketing Assn. here, Motley said "some progress has been made during the past year in cutting out waste and inefficiency and in improving the morale of postal employees." But he added that much remains to be done to eliminate "deep seated conditions of many years' standing."

Noting that Postmaster General Summerfield is planning to ask Congress for further increases in postal rates, Motley said: "Businessmen simply can't see how the postmaster general can hope to establish fair and sound postal rate schedules without first of all putting the postal system on a sound, modernized basis."

A rate increase at this time, he said, could have adverse effects on business generally.

Soviet Reds

200 million, these people may now number in the neighborhood of 40 million. These are the people who by their own efforts and talents or party favor—have been living better, getting a share of the good things of life. They include the empire builders in the farflung republics, a sturdy stock of stubborn colonists. All of these people are just as interested as their Western counterparts in maintaining their status and passing on the good things to their children.

May Be Too Late

When the time comes to attempt to call a halt to these developments, the Communist party may find it is too late. No longer able to rely on the ruthless methods of a Stalin in a society several generations removed from czarism and violent revolution, the party may find itself unable to check the trend. Already it exhibits a growing nervousness at the demanding tone coming from the people.

If the Soviet Union accomplishes in 10 years what it claims it will accomplish in three, it can become a mighty nation, indeed. But if it accomplishes these things, Russia is likely to be a changed nation, too.

There Seems To Be a Thaw In Russian-U. S. Relations

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The year just ending may be remembered in history as the one in which President Eisenhower took relations with Russia out of the refrigerator and used a blowtorch on them.

If there seems to be a thaw in those relations it may be due to the heat, which made the Russians sweat a little in public. But, since they were frigid before, they may turn frigid again.

And this wouldn't be the first time that men everywhere, looking for even a small candle of hope in a bleak world, thought they saw near the year's end a faint glow.

Favored Meeting

On Dec. 24, 1952, a reporter for the New York Times asked Stalin if he would look favorably upon a meeting with incoming President Eisenhower. Stalin said he would. This did not cost Stalin a dime, and it gave him a chance to look like a peace lover. Was this a candle? Men everywhere awaited the reaction of American officials.

President Truman's only comment, two days later, was: "I would be pleased indeed if any agreement can be reached which would achieve world peace." It was the most he could say. Stalin had been talking of Eisenhower, not him.

Ike Cold

When Eisenhower took over, his expressed view of Soviet peace murmurs was as ice-cold as Truman's. It didn't change even when Stalin died or when Malenkov the same month said international troubles could end peacefully.

This didn't melt Eisenhower. If the Russians wanted peace, he said, they could show it by deeds. In a number of small incidents the Russians showed a slight softening.

To Sir Winston Churchill these things may have looked like the candle. He tried to nudge Eisenhower into meeting with Malenkov. Eisenhower wouldn't buy. But he was willing to try the Russians out in another way: Through foreign ministers' talks.

The United States, Britain and France on July 14 proposed that their foreign ministers meet with the Russian foreign minister.

On July 27 the Korean war ended in an armistice.

Still Solid

The months melted into one another. The ice covering relations between this country and Russia remained solid as before.

Eisenhower decided on a supreme effort to thaw the relationship. He proposed on Dec. 8 that this country, Russia and others pool some of their atomic materials for peaceful uses.

This put the heat on the Russians. They could hardly say no to talking about the idea, which was all Eisenhower asked, because the reaction of the rest of the world was too enthusiastic.

Eventually they talked as if they might discuss the atom. But that isn't certain yet. Neither is the foreign ministers' talk. If the meetings take place it will have to be in 1954. If they do take place, they may get nowhere.

There's a chance they might. That at least is a candle. There wasn't any candle this time last year.

Texans Draft Cowboys for Polio Victim

HOUSTON (AP)—When 9-year-old Herman Rowland, a polio victim from Lexington, Ky., arrived at the Southwestern Respiratory center here a few weeks ago he was disappointed.

"I came all the way down here to see a cowboy," Herman complained to his doctor. "You see 'em on TV and in the movies, but you don't see 'em in Texas."

The Houston Post asked the Harris county sheriff's mounted posse to reassure the lad.

Sunday, deputies who make up the posse gave Herman and the other patients a display of horsemanship. Herman watched from a window.

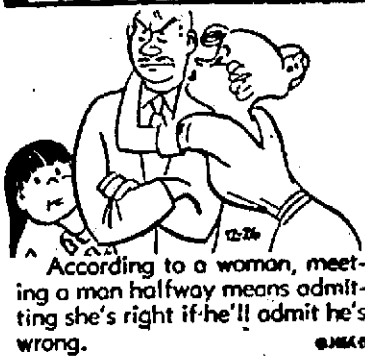

His comment: "It's a lot better, but I'm not ready to give up Kentucky and become a Texan."

Army Set to Carry Out Ike's Order

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army set out today to carry out President Eisenhower's order for reducing infantry forces in Korea, a dramatic first example of the "new look" military policy going into effect.

A spokesman said the decision on which two of the six army divisions in Korea would be withdrawn initially from the armistice-silenced front was one for the Far East Army Command to decide.

Officials of that command said departure of the divisions could not come immediately. There were indications that a procedure used in Europe at the close of World War II would be followed in Korea. At that time, men whose overseas duty was nearing an end were transferred into a division earmarked for return and men in that division with short service were assigned to an outfit scheduled to stay.

Long Process

That process takes several weeks

at a minimum. The high level decision to start cutting Army ground force strength was not reached until about 10 days ago and the detailed instructions began to filter down to the working level of the Army only over the weekend.

Eisenhower, in the formal statement he issued at Augusta, Ga., left out all reference to overall military manpower policy changes. But the action obviously could have eventual influence on the size of the Army.

The goal of the Defense Department under Secretary Wilson is to reduce total Army strength from a present level of about 1½ million men to 1,185,000 by July 1, 1955. This, Wilson has contended, can be accomplished without impairing the combat effectiveness of the Army, by reducing support and service troops.

Reduces Maintenance

The return of two divisions from Korea can reduce some of the high maintenance required for troops on foreign station.

Despite the expressed alarm of South Korean officials over the proposed U. S. ground force reduction, it was obvious that Eisenhower felt the political impact of troop withdrawal from that area would be less serious than to cut

Detroit Again Wins Pro Football Crown

Doran Nabs TD Pass in Last Minutes

Groza Boots Three Field Goals for Losing Cleveland

DETROIT (AP)—End Jim Doran of the Detroit Lions waited until the precise moment to catch his first touchdown pass of the season—and it was worth $33,912.45.

That's how much extra the Lions earned Sunday by clipping the Cleveland Browns 17-16 for their second straight National Football league championship.

The game was a real thriller, matched by only a few pro play-offs, and the ironic part about it was that Doran was supposed to play defense, and not offense. He was forced into offensive duties when Leon Hart, Detroit's towering end, suffered a wrenched knee early in the game.

With only 2:08 to play Doran sped behind Ken Konz, Cleveland defender, and gathered in Bobby Layne's winning touchdown pass. Doran cradled the ball in his arms as he sped across the final money stripes.

It was a crushing jolt for the Browns, who led 16-10 with less than five minutes to go, thanks to three field goals by Lou (The Toe) Groza and a nine-yard TD run by fullback Chick Jagade.

But the Lions, who cut them close during the season, proved their clutch ability was no fluke by marching 80 yards in eight pulsating plays, Layne and Doran were the key players in the drive. They combined on three pass plays good for 68 yards.

Had Passing Balled down, the game was decided in the Lions' favor because they had a passing attack and Cleveland didn't. Otto Graham had one of his worst games in his eight year pro career, completing only two passes in 15 tries for a mere 20 yards.

With a crowd of 54,577 and millions of television looking in, Detroit took a 10-3 lead at halftime. Doak Walker drove across from the one yard line in the first period and he kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second period.

Cleveland, impotent in the first half, was red-hot after intermission and tied the score 10-10 when Jagade capped a 51-yard drive by bulging through right guard to score.

Then Groza sent Cleveland ahead in the fourth quarter with two field goals—15 yards and 43 yards. But it wasn't enough.

Each winning share for the Lions was $2,424.10 while each losing share was $1,654.10.

PLAY THAT SET UP DETROIT TOUCHDOWN—Gene Gedman, Detroit Lions back, carries the ball for seven yards to the Cleveland Browns' six-yard line in first period of professional football championship game after Detroit recovered a fumble by Browns' quarterback Otto Graham. The Lions scored on the next few plays. Cleveland back Ken Konz (22) tackles Gedman. Detroit player leaping is tackle Oliver Spencer (78). No. 34 is back Walt Michaels of the Browns. Hubs Tackle Woodstock At DeKalb

DEKALB (Special)—The first round of the DeKalb tournament followed true to form with DeKalb, Leyden, Belvidere and Highland Park claiming victories Saturday.

Today, the second half of the first round begins with Rochelle scheduled to meet Woodstock in the first game of the evening session. The Hubs, after a pair of relatively poor nights during the Mendota tournament last week, will be hoping for a reversal of form against Woodstock.

Other action today pits Schlarman of Danville, one of the 1953 Sweet Sixteen teams, against Glenbard at 2 p.m.; Sycamore against Galva at 3:15 p.m., and Waterman against Argo at 3:45 p.m.

In Saturday's games, DeKalb set a tournament record in wallopping Shabbona, 95-46. Other first round winners were Leyden, 59-35, over Kirkland; Belvidere, 69-58, over Maple Park; and Highland Park, 52-40, over Genoa-Kingston.

Bob Miller of Leyden with 26 points, was high scorer for the first day of action. G. Hines of Kirkland, loser to Leyden, and George Burmeister of Highland Park, both had 21 points.

DeKalb's record replaces the mark set last year when Evanston whipped Rochelle, 92-41.

Minnesota, Kentucky Clash In Top Cage Game Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—No fewer than 17 college basketball tournaments are scheduled across the country this week, but the big game is at Lexington, Ky., tonight when Kentucky and Minnesota battle it out.

Both clubs are undefeated and the Wildcats, back in action after a year's inactivity, will be striving for the No. 1 spot in the nation. Baron Adolph Rupp's lads have won all six of their games to date while Minnesota has seven victories to show for its season's work.

Kentucky, rated No. 2 behind Indiana in the Associated Press weekly poll, stands a good chance to take over the top rung if it makes a good showing, since the Hoosiers were upset by Oregon State last week.

Tourney Action As for the tournaments, the big one is the Madison Square Garden festival, not so much because it's in the garden, but because third-ranked Duquesne is in it and probably will win. If the Ducks should take it, they will be in a good position to challenge both Indiana and Kentucky for national honors.

The Ducks, undefeated in eight games, tackle Brigham Young, likewise unscathed in eight outings, in the feature semi-final tonight. LaSalle and Niagara play in the other semi-final.

Braves, Pirates Both Happy Over Swap for O'Connell

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Both the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Milwaukee Braves report they have gained from the week-end trade which sent infielder Danny O'Connell to Milwaukee in exchange for six Braves players and an undisclosed amount of cash.

"O'Connell gives us added batting power and also speed," said Charlie Grimm, manager of the Braves.

O'Connell, one of the most highly regarded young players in the National league, batted .297 last season, made 173 hits, including 26 doubles, eight triples and seven home runs, and scored 88 runs.

Cup Series Tied After 1st Round

MELBOURNE (AP)—Tony Trabert enabled the United States to gain an even break in the opening singles matches of the Davis Cup challenge round against Australia today when he ground out a methodical 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 victory over Ken Rosewall, one of the Aussies' 19-year-old wonder boys.

The American's backs were against the wall when Trabert stepped onto the Kooyong Courts before a packed audience of 17,500. Lewis Hoad, the other young Aussie, had just licked Vic Seixas, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3 to send the Downunder lads into a 1-0 lead in their quest to hold the cup for the fourth straight year.

Seixas' defeat at the hands of Hoad was particularly galling for the American contingent since the Australian star never had beaten Vic in six previous matches. It was a point on which the United States was counting.

In Better Position Now with the doubles slated for Tuesday and the final two singles matches on Wednesday there is no denying that the Australians are in the better position. United States Captain Billy Talbert has all but conceded them the doubles which probably will pit Hoad and Rosewall against Trabert and Seixas.

Trabert, in contrast to his teammate, played masterful tennis as he banged away at Rosewall's forehand according to plan. Tony simply would pound his shots to Rosewall's forehand, then rush into the net for the kill. He never varied his tactics.

Case of Jitters But if Trabert supplied good news for the American camp, Seixas did just the opposite. Before today Hoad never had won a match from him. Instead of Hoad being nervous—as he should have since it was his debut in Davis Cup competition—it was Seixas who had a case of jitters.

Talbert, naturally, was disappointed at Seixas' showing. "You have to give Hoad credit though," he said. "He played marvelous tennis. He didn't let Vic in the match after the first game. Vic played well but it just wasn't enough."

Talbert still wasn't conceding the match to the Aussies, though. "It's like a horse race," he said. "As long as you're even you've got a chance to finish on top."

Iowa Invokes Bribery Law In Fix Case DES MOINES (AP)—A new Iowa law making actual or attempted bribery in athletic contests a criminal offense has been invoked for the first time against a Des Moines businessman charged with trying to fix the score of the Drake University-Iowa State College basketball game Dec. 22.

Floren Dipaglia, 27, official of a building supply company here, was arrested Sunday on information filed by Detective Chief Robert E. O'Brien. He was accused of attempting to bribe Ben Bumbry star Drake forward, to shave points off the Drake score.

Streaks Bring Tall, Talented Five to Meet

Three Other Area Tournaments Open Cage Action Tonight

Dixon opens its quest for its first Sterling invitational tournament title at 8:30 p.m. today when the Dukes battle Galesburg in the final game of the first round at Sterling.

Prior to Dixon's debut, Kewanee and Ottawa clash at 2 p.m.; Freeport faces Rock Falls at 3:30 p.m., and Sterling takes on LaSalle-Peru at 7 p.m.

First round winners will meet in the semi-finals tomorrow night while first round losers will collide in the consolation bracket tomorrow afternoon. A single consolation game will be played Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. while the third place game and the championship final are set for Wednesday night.

Ottawa Favored Defending champion Ottawa again resumes the favorite role while Dixon and Sterling rank as leading contenders.

Galesburg brings a good tail team to the tournament which has yet to hit its stride but shows promise of busting out at any time.

The Streaks lost four of their first five last year and currently are building around Sepich, 6-4 center, the only returning regular.

In addition, the Streaks have Granning, 6-3 sophomore, who shows real promise, Reece, 6-2 junior, and Steele, 5-9 junior, all up for the first time with the varsity. Morgan, a 5-10 senior, saw some action last year.

3-3 Record Galesburg has a 3-3 record which includes a big 41-37 victory over Mommouth. They have dropped games to Peoria Manual, East Peoria and Kewanee.

The Kewanee loss came after the Streaks had led during most of the game. However, Kewanee pulled up even and then went on to win after a 21-7 third period.

Dixon coach Lon Scofield, reported today he will start Jerry Curran and either Larry Lund or Don Nafziger at forward, Carl Olson at center and Jim Collins and Pat Kernan at guard. Nafziger's inability to score in recent games, may have opened the gate for the return of Lund to the starting line-up.

Other Tournaments Three other tournaments involving Dixon area teams open up today.

The Ohio Bulldogs begin their own tournament by meeting favored Walnut in the first game at 1 p.m. Franklin Grove and Manlius clash at 3 p.m. while LaMoille and Mineral battle at 7 p.m., and Tiskilwa and Tampico meet in the final at 8:30 p.m.

Tomorrow, the losers of games one and two will meet at 1:30 p.m. in the consolation round while the winners of the first two games will meet in the championship round. At 7 p.m. the losers of games three and four will meet followed by the winners of games three and four.

SPORTS VISITORS HOME WHAT'S THE SCORE by Tom Jollow

AROUND THE BOWL SCENE—Out in Pasadena, the Michigan State Spartans are still combining business with pleasure. This morning the team was scheduled to tour Hollywood and then move back to work with a hide-out practice.

"We're starting the final phase of our preparations," Munn said. "We'll try to iron out any problems we have left, today and tomorrow. There will be some contact work but nothing really vicious."

THE UCLA BRUINS, whose workouts are also held in privacy, planned three more afternoon practices, with nothing scheduled for Thursday.

IN MIAMI, Maryland and Oklahoma may find their Orange Bowl game hinging on punting and punt returns.

The Terps of Maryland have had to punt only 37 times in 10 games this season and were rated fifth in average yards returned with a 15.5 average in 33 returns.

OKLAHOMA, MEANWHILE, was ranked fourth nationally in punt returns with 25 for a 15.8 average. The Sooners were forced to punt only 39 times in ten games.

AND IN DALLAS, the Crimson Tide of Alabama pulled in for its final workouts as one of the worst banged up bowl teams ever to come to the Cotton Bowl.

Coach Red Drew, whose Alabamians are a one touchdown underdog, has a sick list of 10 players. Two and possibly three of the 10 won't play at all in the game, while Rice, which is free of injuries, moved from Houston to Abilene to workout because of rain.

WINDING UP AT NEW ORLEANS, the Ramblin' Wrecks from Georgia Tech will have to rely upon Quarterback Pepper Rodgers to carry them to victory over West Virginia. With halfback Leon Harde-man a doubtful player, Tech is without a top flight broken field runner.

West Virginia, which has a heavy and powerful team, can be expected to hamper Tech fullback Glenn Turner's lunges into the line.

Finally, here are our selections for the first round of area tournaments:

AT OHIO: Walnut over Ohio, Manlius over Franklin Grove, LaMoille over Mineral and Tampico over Tiskilwa.

AT MT. CARROLL: Elizabeth over Thomson, Forreston over Galena, Lanark over Wyanet, Stockton over Chadwick, Mt. Carroll over Lyndon, Oregon over Hanover, Milledgeville over Scales Mound and Shannon over Warren.

AT DEKALB: Danville over Glenbard, Sycamore over Galva, Rochelle over Woodstock and Waterman over Argo.

AT FULTON: Mt. Morris over Orion, Savanna over Erie, Fulton over Prophetstown and Geneseo over Amboy.

Ohio Quietly Developing Dangerous Scoring Unit

CHICAGO (AP)—While Indiana and a few other Big Ten basketball teams have been drawing most of the attention, Coach Floyd Stahl of Ohio State has quietly developed the conference's most dangerous scoring unit.

His Buckeyes, in winning four of six games against outsiders, have produced three of the Big Ten's five top scorers. His other two regulars are less spectacular but steady pointmakers.

As a unit, the Bucks are averaging 51.8 points a game. They're the only team in the conference besides Michigan (45.8 points for five games) to average more than 50.

In addition, Stahl has the conference's top scorer, senior center Paul Ebert, and the No. 4 and 5 men, sophomore guard Robin Freeman and junior forward John Miller.

25.2 Average Ebert, who trailed Don Schlundt of Indiana in Big Ten scoring last year, is averaging 25.2 points a game. Freeman is hitting an even 21 and Miller 20.4. Rounding out Stahl's starting five are Cleo Vaughn, sophomore forward (6.6 point average), and Dean Cook, junior guard (8.1).

Second to Ebert in individual scoring statistics compiled today by the Associated Press is Illinois' center, John Kerr, with a 23.0 average for six games. The Hoosiers' Schlundt is third with 22.3 for seven games.

Minnesota, which can't boast even one of the conference's ten top scorers, nonetheless is one of the Big Ten's two undefeated teams (Michigan State is the other). The Gophers racked their seventh straight Saturday, over Xavier of Cincinnati, 67-64. In other weekend action, Northwestern beat Yale, 76-57, and Ohio State lost to Oregon State, 62-60.

First games of the championship season are due this coming Saturday.

Toughest Tilt We Ever Lost, Brown Says

Parker Reports Team Strategy To Stop Graham

DETROIT (AP)—Paul Brown, coach of the Cleveland Browns, refused to place the blame on his quarterback, Otto Graham, for Sunday's 17-16 defeat to the Detroit Lions in the National Football league title game.

"I wouldn't blame anyone," Brown said after the game. "We just got beat by one point in a rough, tough football game."

The Cleveland coach reflected, then added: "But it was the toughest game we've ever lost."

Down the hall under Briggs Stadium, where the Lions were whooping it up, Coach Buddy Parker said his team's strategy was to stop Graham.

Line Did It "I figured that if we won we would have to put the pressure on Otto Graham's passing—and our whole line took care of that," Parker explained. "I also figured our passing would be the difference—and it was."

Statistics bear out Parker. Graham, who seemed to have trouble getting his footing on the slippery turf, completed only two of 15 passes for 20 yards.

Graham summed up his efforts with: "I just played a lousy game, that's all. I couldn't control the ball. My hands were a little chapped. I had the same trouble in the final game of the season in Philadelphia."

Rocky Marciano To Defend Title Against Nardico BULLETIN NEW YORK (AP)—Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, said today he hasn't agreed to a Marciano-Nardico title fight in Miami Feb. 24 or "any kind of a fight for Rocky yet."

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP)—Heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano says he'll defend his crown against Danny Nardico of Tampa, Fla., Feb. 24 at Miami Stadium in a nationally televised bout.

Looking lean and rested despite his recent 37,000 mile exhibition tour of the Far East, the 29-year-old titlist said Sunday night in an interview: "I'm going to New York Thursday to sign for the fight."

The champion used the exhibition tour to get into shape and now weighs about 193—about six or seven pounds above his fighting weight.

FIGHTS NEW YORK (AP)—Middleweight George Benton of Philadelphia and Bobby Jones of Oakland, Calif., collide tonight in the main 10 rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena. Dumont will telecast the bout to some parts of the country starting at 9 p.m. CST.

Hank Henry Looks at Sports

Many thanks, folks, for the fine Christmas business. We hope that you all have a wonderful and prosperous year in 1954!

I underrated the Detroit Lions prior to yesterday's game. They were the better team yesterday and would have won by a larger margin had it not been for Lou Groza's toe. The Lions seemed to have more spirit and vim than did the methodical Cleveland Browns. It was a great championship game and an indication that the Western Division of the National Professional Football League has been a little tougher for the last three years.

If anyone has any Christmas gift exchanges to make at our store, please try to make them soon, for what doesn't fit your Uncle Elmer may fit somebody else's Uncle Elmer.

This week will give us an idea of the potential of the various area high school teams. The majority of the larger schools in our vicinity are participating in tournaments. The Dixon tourney was a prediction that any of the participating schools could win it on the basis of their pre-tourney ups and downs. We'll all be pulling for the Ducks.

Congressmen Set for Talks

Meetings May Determine Temper of 1954 Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican and Democratic party leaders of the senate arrive in Washington today for conferences that may largely decide whether controversy or cooperation predominates in the 1954 congressional session.

Aides said Senate Majority Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, will hold conferences in advance of the congressional meeting date, Jan. 6.

It is an election year session. Voting in November on all 435 House seats and 35 of the 96 senators will determine party control of Congress.

See More Tension

Tension therefore is bound to be greater than in 1953, when Knowland and Johnson worked harmoniously on most legislation.

Public statements during the weekend by three Democratic senators marked out some of the lines along which Democrats, almost as numerous in Congress as Republicans, intend to press the majority party.

In the Senate the Democrats, although not in control of the legislative machinery, are actually ahead in numbers—48 to 47 Republicans and one independent. In the House the Republicans have 219 seats, to 215 Democrats and one independent.

Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee urged his fellow Democrats to take the helm and push a program aimed at reversing what he called "the trend toward government by monopoly and wealth."

Rebukes Dewey

Sen. Monroney of Oklahoma, taking strong exception to criticism by Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York of the Truman administration's handling of the Korean War, accused the GOP of "hitting below the belt at the entire Democratic party," and said Democrats themselves could tackle hard.

Sen. Kerr of Oklahoma, a member of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee, came out for an increase in income tax exemptions.

Much of the success or failure of the broad legislative program that President Eisenhower has promised to submit to the second session of the 83rd Congress may depend on personal relationships between Knowland and Johnson.

One of the first problems facing Knowland and Johnson will be a Senate internal dispute about important committee places for Democrats and Republicans because of the present break situation with Republicans in control while Democrats hold a numerical majority.

The President will spell out to Congress in person details of his new legislative program Jan. 7.

Pakistan to Receive More U. S. Funds

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan and the United States signed an agreement today which will bring this country up to 22 million dollars worth of American technical assistance for various new projects.

The agreement extends and expands a U.S.-Pakistani development program which started on a small scale in 1951—$600,000—and has grown progressively since. Up to now, Pakistan has received $44,850,000 in technical assistance.

The United States already has contributed to more than 20 projects in Pakistan, the most important of which is the construction of a fertilizer plant. The new agreement will permit the starting of additional projects.

Call Chicago Cops In Squabble Over Name, Toy Wagon

CHICAGO (AP)—Two armed men who had barricaded themselves in two West Side homes within two miles of each other caused police quite a bit of fuss Sunday.

Twenty-eight police cars surrounded the two homes while policemen had to use tear gas to seize Ted Weglar, 33, and break down a door and go under a bed to get Walter Simmons, 32.

Police learned that Weglar had a quarrel with his father, Frank, and his brothers, Frank Jr. and Walter, over the proper name of Pulaski road. Ted insisted it was Crawford avenue. His father and brothers said they had to beat him to subdue him.

Dejected Ted went home and began drinking. His wife Jean took her two children to the home of a relative and Ted got a rifle and threatened to shoot anyone who entered.

Meanwhile, police were summoned to the home of Willie Jackson, 33, where Simmons had threatened to shoot Jackson and Jackson's family in a dispute over a toy wagon. Police found Simmons with a revolver under a bed in the Jackson home.

Rescue 43 When Their Ship Sinks

NEW YORK (AP)—Rescue vessels plucked the last of 43 persons from open lifeboats on icy, wind-lashed North Atlantic seas Sunday, hours after the survivors' freighter had split in two.

The dramatic rescue operations hampered by a heavy sea, were completed by the U. S. Military Sea Transport Ship Bluejacket and the Finnish freighter Orion.

Both ships then continued toward their European destinations. But the Bluejacket went only about 15 miles before huge waves made it pull up to ride out the storm.

Entire Crew

The 43 survivors, including one stewardess, were the entire crew of the Oklahoma and the only persons aboard her. The coast guard said all are believed to be Europeans.

A message from the Bluejacket quoted the Oklahoma's skipper, Robert Kutschbach, as saying the vessel broke in two about midships. The crew gathered on the aft section but had to abandon it when the engine started taking water.

400 Miles Off Coast

Kutschbach gave the position of the Oklahoma when she split as about 400 miles off Newfoundland. The 5,900-ton vessel was headed from Sweden to Baltimore with a miscellaneous cargo.

The last survivors were taken from the fourth life boat around 3:45 a.m. Sunday, nearly 12 hours after the Oklahoma radioed it had split.

The Oklahoma was owned by the Transatlantic Steam Ship Co. Ltd. of Göteborg. Although no details had been received yet, he said, the ship's crack-up was presumably due to the stormy weather.

Tarzan's Terrible Scream Scares Red Pigs, Chickens

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet newspapers have found three new targets for their ire—advertising writers, waiters, and Hollywood's Tarzan.

The admen are dull. The waiters reserve their best service for the best tippers. And Tarzan's jungle cry is scaring the chickens and pigs.

Trud, the organ of the Soviet trade unions, sets its sights on the ad writers. It accused them, in writing about food, for example of "a heavy style and complicated language that don't make sense."

A Mandose

It cited this example: "Tangerine juice is liquid fruit, i.e., the liquid part of the pulp pressed from the tangerine, with all the nutritious parts dissolved in it. 100 grams of tangerine juice gives the body 40 to 60 milligrams of vitamin C, or as they say, one mandose."

A mandose, incidentally, is the dose of vitamins one man needs for a day.

That language, Trud commented, would "repulse the most ardent lovers of fruit juice." Let's have ads in verse—"clear, brief and bright"—the paper suggested.

Waiters Ribbed

Soviet waiters had their inning in Krokodil (Crocodile), the popular satirical weekly.

Presumably the Soviet citizen is well enough off so he doesn't expect or solicit tips. But it's a rare barber, waiter or taxi driver that refuses one.

Krokodil told the story of a Moscow worker and his family—man, wife, mother-in-law and two small sons—who visited a restaurant for dinner one Sunday night.

Tough Steak

The doorman was surprised to see the children. The waiter wanted to seat a late-arriving party of Army officers in their stead but the officers refused. It took a struggle to get a waiter to take the order. The steak was so tough the mother-in-law couldn't chew it. And the waiter tried to overcharge the family.

As for Tarzan, as played by Johnny Weissmuller, he's one of the biggest drawing cards in the Soviet Union. Lately the jungle films, along with cowboy and pirate films, have been shown widely in villages from an open truck.

Of this Pravda says: "From the continuous screaming and shooting, chickens are awakened from their sleep and panic caused among the livestock in the barns and villages at night."

678 Die in Christmas Accidents

By The Associated Press

The sobering statistics of Christmas holiday accident deaths—behind which lay real and personal tragedy for hundreds of households—had only this small consolation to offer: They weren't as bad as they ever have been.

The 78-hour weekend—from 6 p.m. Thursday to midnight Sunday—brought violent death to 678 Americans. Traffic accidents killed 493, fires caused 77 deaths and a variety of accidents took another 108 lives.

Related reports might swell these figures, but there appeared little likelihood they would reach the record 1930 figures for a three-day Christmas weekend toll—545 fatalities, 724 total accident deaths from all causes.

They were well short of all-time records set in the four-day Christmas weekends of 1932—556 traffic fatalities, and 1931—789 deaths from all accidental causes.

The National Safety Council had estimated 510 persons would die in traffic accidents during the 1933 Christmas weekend, and latest figures were only 17 short of that.

Loyalty Check Of Jobholders Bugged Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed loyalty-security checkup on all the approximately 1,800 employees of the Senate has bogged down, although it was recommended by a unanimous Senate vote 10 months ago.

J. Mark Tice, Senate secretary, and several senators who asked that their names not be used cited three reasons for the plan's failure:

(1) A legal prohibition against disclosure of FBI data to persons not authorized to receive it, (2) failure of the Senate to vote the FBI special funds to help with the checkup, and (3) disinterest on the part of some senators.

Last March 6 the Senate unanimously passed a resolution, which does not have the force of law, directing that each of the 96 senators, all Senate committees and all Senate officials having authority to hire ask an FBI check of their employees.

Trice said numerous conferences between Senate leaders, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and Justice Department officials had failed to untangle the legal snarl. The FBI is barred from turning loyalty data over to Congress, except for that on judicial appointees.

Livingston Asked to Make Senate Race

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Park Livingston of La Grange, has received a letter from the Twin City Federation of Labor AFL urging him to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator.

The letter, dated Dec. 24, was released Saturday. It said the Champaign-Urbana labor group was pleased to learn that Livingston is under consideration as the choice of the Cook County Republican Central Committee for the nomination.

Livingston, president of the University of Illinois board of trustees, said he will become a candidate only if he is assured of regular GOP organization support.

Reported Better

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Frank A. Nixon, father of the vice president, no longer is listed as critically ill at St. Joseph's hospital here. He is recovering from a gastric hemorrhage.

Mother Will Take 2-Headed Son Home Soon

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Hartley took her first look at her two-headed baby son Sunday and decided to take him home when he can be released from Riley Hospital.

The 27-year-old mother and her husband, Cecil, 44, have three daughters, all normal, in their small home on a backroad near Petersburg, Ind. They range in age from 2 to 5.

The Hartleys came to Indianapolis to see the baby and were admitted to his room alone. They showed no emotion when they came out in a short time. The baby's condition remains satisfactory.

The hospital indicated the baby, born by Caesarean section Dec. 13 at Washington, Ind., may be released soon. Examinations have been completed, doctors said, but periodic oxygen treatments have
